To Tammy King,

Our cooperation with Tammy began 5 years ago when we approached her to translate a screenplay written by film director Dover Kosashvili. Our fruitful collaboration has been ongoing over the years with additional translations of screenplays, synopses and diverse material pertaining to the film production process.

Tammy is professional and skilled at expressing in English the essence of the screenplay and the screenwriter's vision, while providing courteous and personal service.

We wish Tammy much success and fruitful cooperation in the future.

Sincerely,
